Wine Dog Selections
Gemini and Trouble
Verticals

All six bottles—$160
Wine Club—$144

From 2014 forward, our two vineyards have been producing two distinctly different Pinots. Until 2014, we simple blended the wines from the upper and lower vineyards into one wine. Beginning with 2014, we now bottle the two wines separately and, of course, named them after our Wine Dogs!

Trouble and Gemini

2014 Gemini from our lower vineyard is subtle and nuanced with hints of lavender. Maturing and changing in the bottle, it is just now beginning to achieve its destiny.

2014 Trouble from our upper vineyard is boundless in its forward energy with spice and pepper on the palate.

2015 Gemini Notes of berry, spice and a bit of orange peel in a silky wine. Our selected oak profile gives this wine a lot of body and character

2015 Trouble Takes you from the forest to the sea with tangy pine, sea salt and sunshine.

2016 Gemini Spicy red berries with a bit of a lollipop sweetness.

2016 Trouble Sweet cherries and berries followed by a walk in a pine woods.

CLASSICS
Early Vertical

Three bottles—$99
Wine Club—$89

A Vertical of wines is always interesting. It's a perfect way to get a sense of how the weather affects the wine. Jim always says the wine is made in the vineyard and his job is to preserve the flavors and quality that come in from the vineyard.

Three wines comprise this Vertical.

2011 Another year of miracles in a challenging and short growing season. Our hard work produced a Double Gold Pinot.

2012 The first of the hot years producing a big, bold fruity wine that has only become better with time.

2013 Proving that luck has a lot to do with it, we got our grapes harvested before the legendary rains of 2013. The result is another Gold medal winner that is soft and elegant.

Port-style Pinot Noir

VXX-$35

XII-$45

Two bottles—$75

Wine Club—$*)

These are two of the most elegant wines we produce.

In 2006, Jim took out 3 and 1/2 acres of Kotata Blackberries to make room for more grapes. He saved about half a ton and made a Port just for us. Mmmmmm Good! Holly knew he had a "touch" and "encouraged" him for three years to make a port-style Pinot Noir.

Finally, he realized she was right and in 2011 converted some of that Double Gold winning Pinot Noir into our first Port-style. We called it VXX, which translates to 5/20, our wedding date! It is luscious .

16% alc. by vol., 3% sugar.

The 2012 vintage is even more deeply flavorful and luscious and won a Gold Medal in the New York International Port Festival.

It is cleverly called XII.

17% alc. by vol., 4% sugar.
